

STAFFORDSHIRE
HISTORY FESTIVAL

LOTTERY FUNDED

Josiah Wedgwood and the defence of democracy: touring exhibition and curators' FREE talk

Curators' FREE talk:

19th Sept. 7:00—8.30pm

Book online using Eventbrite searching for

Josiah Wedgwood or book in person at Newcastle Library

As part of their HLF funded project, 'Commemorating Josiah C. Wedgwood' the History of Parliament Trust are holding an exhibition tour at Newcastle Library. The exhibition explores the life and political campaigns of radical MP for Newcastle-under-Lyme (1906-1942) and founder of the History of Parliament Trust, Josiah C. Wedgwood. Join the curators of the exhibition Dr Emma Peplow and Sammy Sturgess, along with former Director of the History of Parliament Trust Dr Paul Seaward for a reception and talk on 19 September at 7pm, Newcastle Library.

Exhibition dates are 3 to 22 September at Newcastle Library

